MOTION TO PERMIT APPEARANCES IN NORMAL CLOTHES WITHOUT SHACKLES OR OTHER RESTRAINTS

I move this court to permit me to make all future appearances in normal clothing and without shackles or other restraints. See Holbrook v. Flynn, 475 U.S. 522 (1985) holding that the use of special courtroom security arrangement involving having uniformed security personnel sit in the first row of the courtroom spectator section did not entail the inherent prejudice of binding and gagging; Deck v. Missouri, 544 U.S. 622 (2005) holding that where a court, without adequate explanation, order the accused to wear shackles - leg irons, handcuffs and a belly chain - that will be seen by jury at the punishment phase of his capitol trial, the accused need not demonstrate actual prejudice to make out a due process claim;

Illinois v. Allen, 397 U.S. 337 (1970) holding that an obstreperous, disruptive accused may lose rights, including right to be present during trial, but due process under the Fifth Amendment requires that shackling and gagging should be tried only as a last resort due to the impact on the presumption of innocence, the right to communicate with counsel, and the necessity of an appearance of dignity in the judicial process.

Respectfully Submitted,

Chris Robert, sui juris

CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE

I hereby certify that I attempted to conference with Aisha Saleem and was unable to due to the fact that my phone priviledges have been restricted unlawfully as punishment and no one here will allow me to make the necessary phone call today because the counselor, Goldsby is not here today. I anticipate that Aisha Saleem will oppose this motion.
